Quotes from parents

“I have been extremely happy and pleased with all aspects of the school since the children started here. The hard work which is constantly put in by the staff is exceptional.”

“My daughter has settled into school well and I feel this has been aided by the way Mrs. P and the other teachers and staff take time and patience to get to know each child and treat them as individuals, with lots of kindness and respect.”

“Westgate is an excellent school. This is now our 2nd child to attend Westgate and there is nowhere else I would think about sending number 3! “

“An excellent school. My daughter loves it. Thank you.”

“Westgate is a friendly school and very welcoming. I moved my child here in Year 2 and have never looked back.”

“My daughter loves it at this school. I’ve also got my son’s name down to start in September. Had no problems at all, very pleased we chose this school.”

“My child really enjoys coming to Westgate. She has thrived whilst at school and has made some friends for life. The teachers are a credit to the school.”

“I’m very happy with Westgate School and the fantastic education and nurture it has given to both of my children.”

My son really enjoys school, he looks up to the teachers with a lot of respect and he gets this back in return. Great job thank you.”

“Keep up the good work guys, you all do a wonderful job. My daughter loves coming to school and owe a lot of that to all of the staff who make her feel so loved! Thank you.”

“Both my girls absolutely love school. After a year with Mrs. O my daughter learned to read and write really well and her confidence levels were raised, she became a different little girl and I will always be thankful for the work she put in. Mr. C carried that fantastic confidence building on in Year 5.”
